

The Soul Power Cancun Retreat
Activate the Secrets to Health, Joy, and Unlimited Abundance!

Treat yourself to 5 incredible days in beautiful Cancun Mexico. Your mind and body will be refreshed and rejuvenated by the sea, sun and gorgeous resort surroundings – and that's only the tip of the iceberg! Your spirit will soar as Master medium and world-renowned spiritual teacher James Van Praagh hands you the key to living your very best, most authentic life – by tapping into your soul wisdom.

Over 5 magical days you'll practice life-changing techniques to:

- Learn to trust the wisdom of your soul's voice – your intuition - to make the right decisions for you, every time.
- Customize a practice of mindfulness and meditation that will keep you calm, clear and focused long after the workshop is over.
- Let go of fear, pain, and limiting beliefs that hold you back – and give yourself permission to experience the joy, love and success you crave!
- Tune up your Spirit connection and get acquainted with your personal support team, your Spirit guides, guardian angels and ascended masters. Learn how to call upon them anytime to receive support, protection and guidance.
- Discover the power of your words and thoughts, and how to use them to manifest everything in life you desire.

Of course, no time with James is complete without visits from the Spirit Realm – you never know who'll drop in from the other side to share proof that life goes on, and death is an illusion.

Give every part of you the gift of a soul retreat. You'll leave a whole new person, inside and out – ready to experience all the blessings life has to offer.
